Social Change to End Violence Against Women

Posting Date: July 20, 2026 Application Deadline: Open until filled

Overview of Domestic Abuse Intervention Programs

The mission of Domestic Abuse Intervention Programs (DAIP) is to end violence against women. We give voice to diverse women who are battered by translating their experiences into innovative programs and institutional changes that centralize victim safety. We partner with communities worldwide to inspire the social and political will to eliminate violence against women and their families.

Overview of The Duluth Family Parenting Time Center

The Duluth Family Parenting Time Center (DFPTC) provides a safe place that is free from domestic violence where children can build and maintain positive relationships with their parents.
